MTO tops 2500

Employment at Mississippi Test Operations peaked this week at 2,519.

Of the total 2,094 are contractor personnel.

Routine check by the Corps of Engineers Monday morning showed 2,484 at work in MTO related jobs and the NASA public relations office asked for a re-check Wednesday noon to see if it would show the 2,500 mark had been reached.

The new count which was made on construction workers turned up 35 new faces in the period from Monday through yesterday. Most of this was attributed to additional men on Leavell and Kiewit's forces and arrival on the site of the first group from Malan division of Koppers, Inc., which will build the huge Saturn dual test stand.

Employment projection had been for the 2,500 figure to be reached in July and August in building the static test facility for the nation's space effort.

Forecast is it will level off to about 2,400 late this year. The count last week was 2,225 with 1,809 of them contractor personnel. Employment passed the 2,000 mark the week of July 6 with 2,173 on the rolls. Work started in May, 1963, and testing operations are slated to start in late 1965.

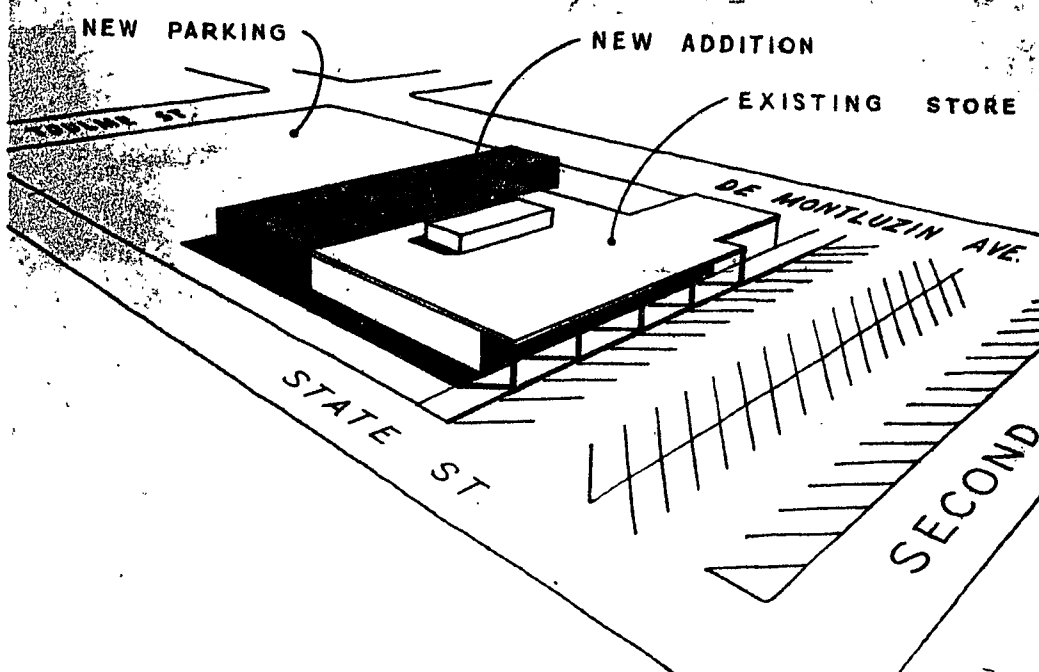

The atmospheric measuring group at Mississippi Test Operations is increasing its staff and responsibilities to provide weather forecasting capabilities for the static test facility being established in Hancock County.

Ken Nagler, head of the space flight meteorology group of the U.S. Weather Bureau, was at MTO Wednesday to inspect facilities and introduce to local officials Charles King who has been named meteorologist in charge of the local weather group.

King, until his appointment at MTO, was attached to NASA's Wallops Station in Virginia. He will be stationed at the Marshall Space Flight Center, Huntsville, Ala., for about four months before locating permanently at MTO.

John Rhyne who has been technician in charge of the weather group here, will remain in charge of the weather observing functions with the title of supervising technician.

Nagler's group with the U.S. Weather Bureau is responsible for weather support for all of (Cont. on Page 6.)

JITNEY STARTS EXPANSION - Contract for construction of Jitney Jungle supermarket building by 50 per cent was signed this week by Joseph R. Scharf, proprietor, with C. C. McDonald, Jr., local contractor, and lowbidder on job. Present building, occupied since November, 1957, is 10,343 square feet and addition is 5,325. Parking lot also will be increased for total plant of 53,900 square feet. Work began Wednesday and is to be completed in December. Architects were Oubre and Wagner.

Phones up $1,000 anonymous gift to hospital

There's about a 20 per cent increase in telephones on the Bay St. Louis exchange this year over 1963. J. Conway Dabney, Gulfport group manager for Southern Bell, estimated last week as the phone company completed distribution of the new directories.

The 1964 total is 4,612 against 3,893 last year. That includes 4,323 on the Bay exchange of 467—which replaces the old Homestead designation. (Telephone officials say it's easier to dial by number, especially in long distance direct dialing.)

Also assigned to Bay exchange is the prefix 688—for phones in the Mississippi Test Operations area which number 133, and 176 on the Logtown exchange which is being moved to Pearlport, also as a result of MTO. The 688 prefix numbers are listed under Bay St. Louis in the directory while Logtown, is shown separately between Gulfport and Ocean Springs in the pages.

A few frequently called numbers are changed in the new directory. Hancock General Hospital is now 467-9081 and Time of Day service for Hancock Bank is 467-9051.

Telephones increased in number this year all along the Gulf Coast, Dabney said, but the biggest percentage gain appears to be in Bay St. Louis.

Sam Allison, key man on the CVO line-up, blasted a two run homer in the bottom of the sixth to put the finishing touches on CVO's victory over Chateau. CS threatened in the fourth as they collected seven runs on a series of singles, doubles, triples and homers but were shut-out the remaining frames three up three down. Alvin Lader was winning hurler, Bruce Cox the loser.

Traps went scoreless the rest of the game and SR clinched a long hot summer with seven runs in the last inning with the entire batting order getting a rap.

Claude Yarbrough was credited with the big mound victory while Gus Alme took the loss.

This artist expressed profound appreciation for the occasion and spoke of his philosophy of applied religion, citing the Biblical phrases of "ask and ye shall receive... as a man thinketh, so is he" as his basis of living. He told the group he wished his mother, who died in 1948, and Miss Josie Welch, who used to run a shop on the beach, could have shared the occasion.

He left Wednesday to spend a few days with old friends in Mobile and will return Monday for another visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Williams.

Good and bad news flavored Tuesday's meeting of the trustees of Hancock General Hospital. On the good side was an anonymous donation of $1,000 to the hospital, which the board accepted with Board President Cornelius J. Lader dissenting. Lader apparently objected to the donor's name being withheld from the board by Trustee John Rutherford who proffered the donation on behalf of the donor.

Also on the plus side was the authority granted Administrator Thomas O. Logue to hire an additional anesthetist and a part-time X-ray technician, according to Logue, will probably work one day a week at the Sidel Hospital and four days at Hancock General.

The trustees spent much of their time on technical objections to the minutes of the last two meetings. A motion by trustee T. T. Rahoul, Jr., passed which approved the minutes of the preceding meeting with exceptions. The exceptions arose from Lader's seconding a motion while presiding. Lader contended nothing in the by-laws prevented this although conceding parliamentary procedures, such as Robert's Rules of Order, required the presiding officer to relinquish that role before making or seconding a motion.

Lader, in turn, again brought up his objections, voiced at the July meeting, to the board's approval of the minutes of the June meeting. Lader contended that the minutes did not report exactly the statement or letter from the hospital's medical staff read by Dr. Leroy McFarland at the June 9 meeting.

Jaycees back pay hike for mayor, commissioners

A raise in pay for the mayor and commissioners of Bay St. Louis was recommended by the Jaycees last week. The general membership, concurring with earlier action by the Jaycees board of directors, went on record favoring a salary of $600 a month for the mayor and $575 for the commissioners. All three officials now receive $400 a month.

Jaycees President Lee Chopin said "this action was taken in the interest of good government. The membership felt that salaries in accord with the responsibilities of the offices would encourage present officials to seek re-election and encourage other qualified persons to seek the offices."

A Jaycees committee is being formed to encourage individuals and organizations to request an election on the salary increases.

The bad news was the formal resignation from the hospital's medical staff of Dr. Nicholas Campbell and Charles J. Co. Dr. Campbell is moving to San Antonio, Texas, as a civil service pediatrician assigned to the Air Force. Dr. Cox will discontinue practice here on Aug. 27 to go to Lafayette Charity Hospital for a one year residency in general practice.

The board also authorized Logue to advertise for equipment for a private room including an electrically operated bed.

Sugar cane caravan stops in Bay today

The annual sugar cane goodwill tour of the Louisiana Sugar Cane Assn. will arrive at 3:30 p.m. today for a 15-minute ceremony at the Municipal Beach area at the end of Urban Avenue.

City police are to meet the four-bus caravan at the truck scales on U.S. 90 and will escort them down Nicholson Avenue to Beach Blvd., north on Beach to the Bay-public beach.

Powell Glass, Jr., president of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce which has made arrangements for the good-willers stop here, will serve as master of ceremonies and Mayor John A. Scalfide will present the sugar king with a key to the city.

The 1964 Miss Bay St. Louis, Betty Smith of Clarksburg, Md., will present a bouquet of flowers to the sugar queen, Lucal Pringle, daughter of U.S. 90 "Daddy" Pringle's, Jaycees and Kado's are providing prizes for distribution to the 150 good-willers. ## Logtown sale talks pushed

Plans for further negotiations between the federal government and the Logtown School in Mississippi Test Operations buffer zone occupied the bulk of the county school board's session at a meeting Sunday.

Walter J. Phillips, money for the board, requested Superintendent Robert F. Lader to provide data on equipment replacement costs and said he is arranging for a top level conference in Washington, D.C., the week of Aug. 24 in an effort to reach a satisfactory agreement which will not involve extensive court litigation.

He reported on arguments in federal court in Jackson Friday on the government's motion for a new trial on the 16th Section land jury verdict in February and warned that taking the Logtown case to court could tie up the money involved for two years.

The attorney also was authorized to negotiate with government for sale of the old Negro school at Logtown for $3,500. Meanwhile, E. P. Orte, board president, related his conference with Beat 1 Supervisor H.G. Dean on the school board's request for an increase in millage this fall. Dean has taken the view he will not vote for a tax hike unless parents in his district are satisfied a school will be built at Pearlport to replace Logtown which closes next year.

Orte expressed the view the board is the body to determine where the school is relocated, noting people from the buffer zone have moved all over the county.

Superintendent Lader announced the three district schools—Logtown, Gulfview and Hancock North Central will have registration Friday, Aug. 28, with classes starting Aug. 31.

He said the teacher shortage situation was much improved. Ory Holden was named to the (Cont. on Page 6.)

Realty wins '64 play-offs

Southern Realty blasted Traps 10-2 Tuesday night to win the third and deciding game of the 1964 men's softball league play-offs. Realty won the first game Sunday but the Traps evened the score by taking Monday's contest.

CVO captured consolation honors by downing Chateau 11-8 in the third game of that series.

Realty drew first blood scoring one run in the third but Trap ball players came back in the bottom half of the fourth to score two runs on four hits. SR's J.T. Lader, top stick in men's softball, smashed a two run homer over the 316 foot marker in the next frame giving the Realtors a one run advantage.

Traps went scoreless the rest of the game and SR clinched a long hot summer with seven runs in the last inning with the entire batting order getting a rap.

Claude Yarbrough was credited with the big mound victory while Gus Alme took the loss.

Homestead papers returned by state

Adjustment of homestead exemption applications by 55 individuals, as recommended by the State Tax Commission, was approved by the board of supervisors July 27. The bulk of the number were rejections on several bases related to bona fide residence in Hancock County.

Supervisors Dolph Keller of Beat 2, who presided as president pro tem in the absence of Supervisor R. G. Hubbard of Beat 5, suggested that the board follow the state agency's findings and leave any objections up to the individual taxpayer involved. His two colleagues present went along with this view and Clerk Marie Quintini will now notify the individuals whose applications were "adjusted."

Changed on the basis of being allowed in the wrong school district were applications of Jennie L. Courtlandt, James R. Kelly and Ola V. Moran.

Bay and bayou

By HANK EVANS Rt. 1, Box 314C

A lot of fishermen would give up the sport altogether if they reasoned like Leroy Ward. As Leroy explains it, one day a while back he figured out what he was putting into fishing and what he was getting out of it.

Starting with rods and reels and a tackle chest that grow more expensive all the time, you add a boat, motor and trailer. Then, of course, you have to have anchors, oars, iceboxes, cushions, gas cans, lights, spears, nets, gaffs, and so on. Pretty soon you have to get a bigger boat with two motors.

Once every few weeks you get up at some awful hour in the morning, wake up a couple of fishing partners, load up with ice, gas, oil, bait, food and liquid refreshments, and you're on your way. If you are lucky and don't have a flat tire or worse by the time you reach your destination, the whole party is only half dead by the time the fishing actually starts.

Then, as the sun gets hotter and hotter, the fish don't bite. Later you get soaked with rain and the fish still don't bite. Naturally you forget to bring any insect repellent, so you try to brush off the flies and mosquitoes. One of your companions polishes off the liquid refreshment. The other one eats all the food aboard. And finally, just as the fish really start to bite, both your fishing partners announce that they can't stay out any longer but have to hurry home.

"So," says Leroy, "you get home in a bad temper, too tired to clean a few fish that have cost several dollars a pound. No more of that for me. I'll just sit here in the air conditioning and wait for some fisherman to come by giving them away!"

Norman Compretre held another of his spur-of-the-moment seafood dinners last week after Tom Noto walked in with a nice catch of hard crabs and Pete Carver turned up with a mess of shrimp. Among those attending the feast we found L.S. Pahlman surrounded by a small mountain of crab shells and wearing a satisfied grin; Doug Scarborough was diving happily into some of the shrimp. Oh, yes, we ate our share of Norman's cookery, too.

The Sherman Wilkisons of New Orleans have spent practically every weekend this summer building on their property on Bayou Galere. The three boys, Sherman, Jr., David and Mark, have pitched in to help mother and daddy whenever they could be pried away from fishing and swimming in the bayou. Their first building project started out to be a simple tool shed but something happened to the original plan. The Wilkisons still call it their weekend shack, but it's starting to look more like a summer palace.

Rafael and Red Lusich were at it again Saturday night and were well-rewarded for their troubles. Working from the boat up Jordan River, they speared 22 flounders ranging in size up to five pounds.

Another successful night fisherman last week was Bobby Sylvester. Tossing the net around the Jordan River mud flats was bringing in pounds of mullet per minute. Bobby said he'd have stayed out longer but he got to thinking about having to clean all those fish.

Gilly Gilmore picked a rough day to give his hull a workout Wednesday. With Hank Kruser and T-Bone Fayard hanging on, he made a three-hour cruise from Pearl River to Heron Bay and back. Gilly said he saw plenty of water-above, below, and on all sides. It was very wet water, too.

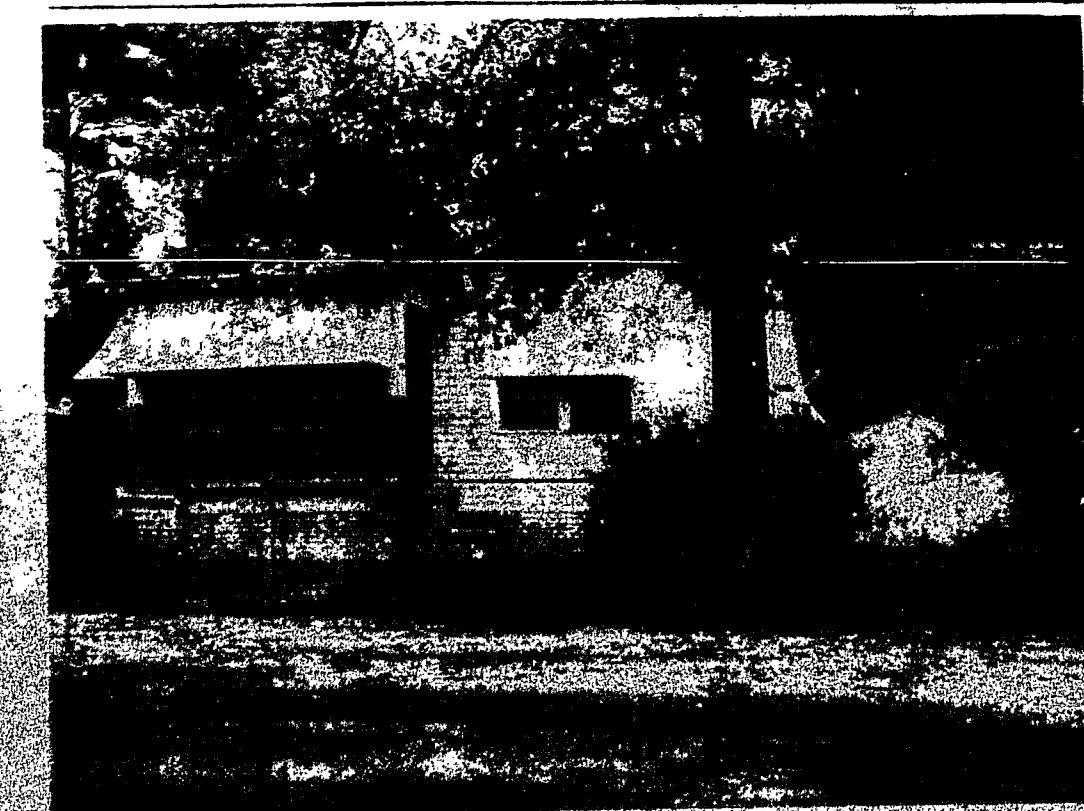

While visiting from New Orleans, A.J. Ruschel, Jr., got a taste of the variety of fish in the Bay Sunday morning. After an hour's fishing session around the draw of the highway bridge, the contents of the live-well looked like a catalog: croaker, white trout, gafftopsail and hardhead catfish, pinfish, channel mullet and a stingray. And they all came from the bottom on dead shrimp and a single 1/0 Eagle claw hook.

borough walked, loading the bases, Jackie Strong with the squeeze play on lined a fly ball to third allowing Braves to make a double play.

Tension mounted in the last frame as David Compretre reached first, a balk was called moving Compretre to second, and with two out Brave Anthony Ladner flew right back to Grover to retire the sides and end what might have been the turning point in the game.

Merchants Bank, with one of the best hitting-pitcher staffs in Little League play, opened the play-offs with Dave Kidd, who allowed one hit to Chaucky Carver and finished with Gussie Collier, who struck out five and gave up one hit to Gary Blatze and one run.

Realty bounced back from a 16-3 Trapani defeat to even the count with a 12-6 victory over the big green in the final bracket and Chateau Seu roared back with a 16-9 victory to avenge its CYO defeat of 9-5 in consolation play.

In the third, the dam burst and eight SR runs came flowing across the plate. Bating around for SR were W.J. Cameron, Charles Tartavouille and Barry Stephens while Leroy Luke smashed a long-shot homer in deep center scoring Seymour and Ginn.

Collecting two or more hits for Realty were Barry Stephens, Larry Mathis, Cliff Vogt, James Ginn, homer, Wilmer Seymour, Leroy Luke and W.J. Cameron who lined a perfect 3-3.

Claude Yarborough was credited with the win although Don Caldwell relieved him in the bottom of the fourth allowing only one hit. Gus Aime was charged with the defeat allowing 17 hits.

In the first game of the finals, Sunday Trap ball players caught Southern Realty off guard, pounded out 13 hits, and behind Aime silenced the booming bats for the first time this season, allowing only nine hits.

Lead-off hitter Ronnie Artigues, Billy Murphy, Aime, Bobby Boudin, and Jake Morreale lined two for four as the Knock-Knock picked up one in the second, four in the third, seven in the fourth and four in the seventh.

Of Realty's nine hits collected Bill Watts lined 4-4, Stephens, Seymour, and Mathis, 2-3 and Caldwell and Cliff Vogt collected one each.

Chateau's big rally came in the second inning when Raymond Strong singled, Larry Favre, walked, Donald Strong hit over the rightfield fence, Earl Payard lined a homer, Mike Strong reached first on an error, Ronnie Peterson, Mike Smith, and seven death dealing runs.

CYO's Sam Alliston with the odds, two out, two on, two in, two strikes, two balls, in his favor placed a hard hit homer in deep center as CYO scored five runs in the first.

Bruce Cox was credited with the win, Alvin Ladner, the loss.

In the first of the consolation games, CYO collected 11 hits for 30 trips up while Chateau lined 11 for 33 trips, Shorty Karl and Sam Alliston starred for CYO with 2-3 but Dick Watts lost the cake as he lined a three-run homer in the bottom of the sixth.

Ladner was the winning hurler and Donald Strong the loser.

SR, Traps gain play-off finals

Southern Realty, two time league champs, and Trapani's Knock-Knock, polished off their opponents two straight in the best two out-of-three game series in the semi-finals of the men's bay softball league championship play-offs last Thursday and Friday.

Realty downed fourth place CYO 9-5 and 8-6 while Trap players clobbered Chateau Seu 6-3 and 5-1.

In the opening round, Southern Realty pounded out 16 hits for 33 trips up as they scored four runs on five straight hits in the first, and five runs on seven straight hits in the second.

Bill Watts, 4-4, Barry Stephens and J.T. Ladner, 2-4, led the SR advance behind right-hander Claude Yarborough, winning hurler who allowed only eight hits.

In the second SR encounter, the Realtors staved off a late CYO rally in the seventh, Dusty Rhodes started the ball rolling with a homer in the fourth. Dick Watts added one run in the fifth. In the final frame Curtis Matherne and Shorty Karl hit safely, Watts reached first on an error, Mike Lee sacrificed to score Matherne, Joe Compretta walked, Sam Alliston and Donnie Saucier lined singles and Nodie Ladner, representing the winning run with two out and the bases loaded lined a hard hit ball in deep center just inches short of a homer for the last out to retire the sides. Realty's runs came in the first, second and fourth innings behind Larry Mathis who was two for three, Claude Yarborough and Cliff Vogt made up the winning battery. Alvin Ladner and Compretta were losers.

In the second game of the twin-bill Thursday Trapani's Gus Aime held powerful Chateau Seu to eight hits. Collecting for Chateau were Ronnie Favre, Sheldon Seuzeneau, and Donald Strong, all 2-3, and Earl Payard and Raymond Strong, 1-3.

Meanwhile Trap ball players collected 15 hits off rookie pitcher Bruce Cox behind Bobby Boudin and Billy Rhodes who lined three for three.

Friday night's action saw Trap southpaw Aime hurl a two hitter to hold Chateau to only one run which was scored by Coach Morgan who singled and was driven in by Earl Payard with a single.

Pass sailors grab lead in round robin

Pass Christian's round robin team piled up an impressive lead in the 12-boat competition last weekend at the Pass yacht club with 262 3/4 points to 202 3/4.

The last half of the series will be at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club Aug. 15-16.

Winners of the six races were Alfred Watts, Syd Ellis, Chuck Bieath, Mike Pickich, Carl Marshall and Smuffy Schmidt.

Schmidt is the leading contender in the Pass Christian Lipton eliminations and Harry Chapman leads the Bay-Waveland team. The top four skippers from each club will represent their club in the Lipton championship regatta at Bay-Waveland Labor Day Weekend. Fourteen teams from all the clubs belonging to the Gulf Yachting Assn. will participate.

Winds were variable, light to heavy in the squalls, and during the rain compasses could have been used to advantage as visibility was zero for awhile last weekend. All crews got as wet from the rain as did Carl Marshall's when they upset. A committee boat was on the scene and towed them to the harbor.

Yacht club calls meet on finances

A $75,000 financing plan to provide for retirement of existing bonds and expansion of facilities at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club will be presented to the membership at a special business meeting called for 6:30 p. m. Sunday.

A social hour will start at 5:30 p. m. and attendance at the business meeting will entitle members to tickets for a spaghetti supper afterwards.
